PROJECT NUMBER ELEVEN

Organizing the Speech

SPEAKER _____

DATE _____

SUBJECT _____

EVALUATOR _____

Note to Evaluator: The specific point to this speech is construction. The speaker has been advised to use Monroe's "Motivated Sequence." This involves five steps: (a) Attention; (b) Need; (c) Satisfaction; (d) Visualization; (e) Action. The speech should reflect this arrangement. You will observe the points with care. In your spoken comment, review this outline and tell how well or how poorly the speaker used it. You will have two minutes for this speech of criticism. Don't waste one second of the time. Above all, let the speaker know whether they won you to favor their proposition.

Add your written comments below. This speaker has had enough experience to enable them to profit by very frank comment. Do not attempt to "get rough" or to "tear them apart" just for the fun of it. If they have any bad mannerisms or faults in delivery, tell them so. If you give adverse comment on any point, you must suggest ways to improve.
