

Evaluation Guide

PROJECT NUMBER SIX

Speech Building

DATE _____

SPEAKER _____

SUBJECT _____

EVALUATOR _____

Note to the Evaluator: It is the purpose of this study to help the speaker improve as a speech builder. Direct your observations principally to this point.

The speaker was given their choice of several methods of organization. Which one did they use? Did they use it well? (If you are in doubt as to which one was used, ask them.)

As you listen to the speech, try to make an outline, indicating the principal points. Note the opening and the conclusion, and the arrangement of the body of the talk. Check later with the speaker, to see whether your outline corresponds with theirs.

The speaker has been advised to make a “personal evaluation” of their work. You might talk over this “evaluation” with them, so that you may give them additional suggestions, outside of the meeting.

In your speech of evaluation on this talk, give primary attention to construction. Speak briefly and pointedly on this one item. Add other suggestions on this sheet so that the speaker may preserve them for reference. Note especially any evidences of improvement.

Voice – Appearance – Gestures – Earnestness – Appeal

What particular thing do they need to do to make their speech better?

Have they a good sense of timing, or do they go overtime?

What kind of speech do you consider their best style?

BASIC TRAINING FOR TOASTMASTERS

© 1953 Toastmasters International. All rights reserved. Toastmasters International, the Toastmasters International logo, and all other Toastmasters International trademarks and copyrights are the sole property of Toastmasters International and may be used only by permission. Any illegal reproduction of this content will result in immediate legal action.
Item 8678E Rev. 02/2026

